

Let's pull it out of the hat!

Welcome back to a new term.

We hope that you had a relaxing break enjoying the unexpected sunshine!

We are jumping straight into our learning this term with our topic "Let's pull it out of the hat!" based on The Black Hat by Maia Walczak. Our learning will centre around this book and will include writing a story based upon the book, writing reports on bees, creating watercolour pictures of birds, singing songs about minibeasts, exploring plants and much more.

As well as all of this, we have 2 sporting trips to SWR planned, an exciting World Book Day and Easter activities too.

Our door is always open for any queries, questions or help.
