

We have created a mini-project and three other tasks to be completed over this topic. Each task shows when it needs to be handed in - please don't hand it in before the date shown. We expect the best homework from your child, work that we know your child is capable of producing. Please support your child with these tasks but don't do them for them!

1. Mini project

Henri Rousseau was an artist well known for a particular painting which links beautifully to our topic for this term. With the help of the internet or a visit to the library find out information about him. Share your findings in your homework book or you might like to make a leaflet about his life and his work.

A website that you may find useful is...

Then choose a piece of his work to replicate using materials of your choice eg paints, collage etc. A website that parents/carers may find useful and is particularly helpful for creating art in his style is...

Due in on Friday 15th February

2. Using your learning and research skills, create at least six 'Did you know?' fact cards about the rainforest. Think about making sure that all your facts are interesting and the more unusual they are, the better!

Due on Friday 8th March

3. Design a crossword or a word search using vocabulary relating to the rainforest. Be sure to include clues with your crossword or a list of words to find with your word search.

If you need a template, ask your teacher.

Due on Friday 22nd March

4. Imagine you're an explorer in the rainforest. Write a diary entry based on the events (what happened) one day.

Remember to include features such as...

The date

Dear Diary

Writing in the first person

Mostly writing in the past tense

Sharing thoughts and feelings

Due on Friday 5th April
