

The World in Our Hands
Oceans

READING FOR PLEASURE

We will read The Nowhere Emporium by Ross MacKenzie as our class reader. It will also be the stimulus for a narrative unit of writing where we will write the beginning of a mystery story.

Various non-fiction books about the oceans will inform our geography learning.

These books will inform our non-fiction writing through learning about Greta Thunberg. We will write speeches inspiring courage and caring for our world.

Year 4&5's
SUMMER
Reading Road

A caring, curious and courageous curriculum.

Tetbury
Crime and Punishment

The True Story of The 3 Little Pigs! by Jon Scieszka will provide stimulus for our newspaper writing unit, linked to our theme of crime and punishment.

We will read, enjoy and recite a variety of poems based on different aspects of our planet, encouraging caring for the world around us.

Through our Tetbury topic, we will be finding out about modern day crime and punishment as well as during Anglo-Saxon times.
