

The World in Our Hands Rivers

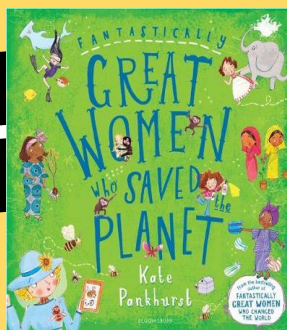

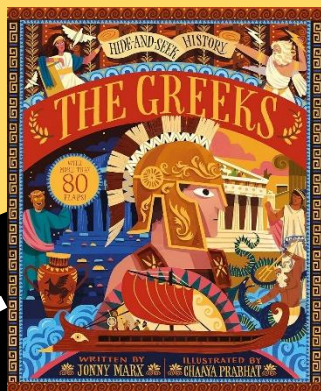

READING FOR PLEASURE
We will continue our adventures in Roar by reading Return to Roar by Jenny McLachlan.

River Stories explores the sights and stories of the world's greatest rivers. This will support our learning in Geography.

The Greeks will help us to reinforce our previous learning whilst we complete a writing unit discussing city states in Ancient Greece.

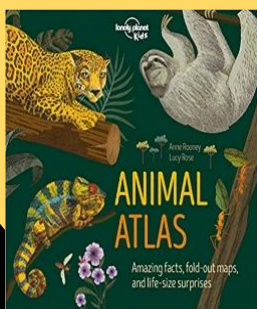

This book will provide stimulus for our non-fiction writing unit – biographies.

Year 4&5's SUMMER Reading Road

A caring, curious and courageous curriculum.

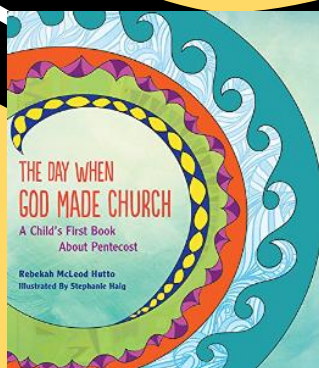

Tetbury The Railway

This book will help us as our science learning returns to animals and their habitats, this time with a focus on classification.

This book will help us to explore our BIG question in R.E.

When Jesus left, what was the impact of Pentecost?

Year 4 and 5 will read, enjoy, recite and write poems with a focus on similes, metaphors, onomatopoeia and personification.
