

Diagram of Entry and Exit Points for Children and Parents

This is a simplified diagram of the school simply to illustrate routes into and out of school for parents and children in each class to support information in the Back to School Safely letter which gives fuller details about drop off and pick up.

Each colored dot/dash line shows to route into and out of school for the relevant class of children.