

For Christians, What Kind of King Was Jesus?

Key Learning:

- For Christians today, across the world, being a member of the community of the Kingdom of God is both a precious gift and a challenge: living out the values of the Kingdom of God is the key challenge of being a disciple of Jesus, loving God and loving our neighbour.
- For Christians, the Kingdom of God is where God rules in human hearts and minds, lives and communities.
- The Kingdom is compared to a feast where all are invited to join in. Not everyone chooses to do so.
- Jesus' key teaching in the first three Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) is that he is beginning a kingdom where God's rule of love, forgiveness and inclusion will grow.

Key Questions:

- How do the Bible texts explain the 'Kingdom of God'?
- Do all Christians think of the 'Kingdom of God' in the same way?
- If Christians believe in a 'Kingdom of God', how is this demonstrated in their behaviour?
- Why is it important that Christians have the 'Kingdom of God' to aspire to?
- Which famous people show service in others in today's world? What can other people learn from their behaviour?
