

Who was Mary Anning?

Key Questions

- Who was Mary Anning?
- What were the curiosities she found?
- Where did she look for fossils?
- What type of a dinosaur did she find one day?
- When did dinosaurs live?
- How many different types of dinosaurs are there?

FUN FACTS

- She is one of our school house groups.
- Mary Anning was born in Lyme Regis in Devon.
- When she was young she was hit by lightning!
- She had 9 brothers and sisters!
- She was born 21/5/1799 and died 9/3/1847

Key Vocabulary

Fossil	Remains or traces of plants & animals that lived long ago.
Cliff	Tall steep rocks that have vertical (straight up & down) faces.
Beach	Sandy or gravelly part of the shore of an ocean.
Jurassic coast	An area found in the south of the UK.
Rocks	A hard material made up of one or more minerals.
Skeleton	A firm structure of a living thing typically made of bone.
Prehistoric	Before records were kept, before history.
Dinosaur	Animals found on earth more than 150 million years ago.
Paleontologist	A scientist who studies the remains of living things from long ago.
Preserved	To make sure something doesn't fall apart, is kept in the best state possible.
Ancient	Something or someone that is very old.
Ichthyosaurus	An extinct reptile like animal that lived in water.