

England
Unearthed

Who were the Anglo-Saxons
and Vikings?

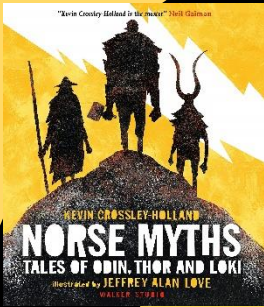

READING FOR PLEASURE
Beowulf by Michael Morpurgo will be our main fiction text in Term 5. It will provide stimulus for our narrative writing unit where we explore the courage
shown by heroes.

How to Train your Dragon by Cressida
Cowell will inspire
our narrative writing
and information
writing in Term 6.

These books are non-fiction books which will provide stimulus for writing across the curriculum in Term 5.

We will read Norse Myths for pleasure and as a stimulus for our writing.

Year 5's SUMMER Reading Road

A caring, curious and courageous curriculum.

These non-fiction books will inspire our writing across the curriculum in Term 6. We will be thinking about the courage and curiosity shown by the Vikings as they voyaged across the seas.

Year 5 will read, enjoy and recite a variety of poems, including poems about myths and legends.
